2 0 2 2

(CBCS)

(5th Semester)

SOCIOLOGY

SIXTH PAPER

(Social Stratification)

Full Marks : 75

Time : 3 hours

The figures in the margin indicate full marks for the questions

(SECTION : A—OBJECTIVE)

(Marks : 10)

Tick (✓) the correct answer in the brackets provided : 1×10=10

1. Social stratification is

(a) a division of society in terms of class ( )

(b) a cultural division of society ( )

(c) a hierarchical division of society ( )

(d) based on cultural background of the people ( )

2. Which one of the following represents a form of differentiation and not stratification?

(a) Caste ( ) (b) Sex ( )

(c) Gender ( ) (d) Class ( )

3. Functional approaches to the study of social stratification was propounded by

(a) Davis and Hatt ( ) (b) Parsons and Ross ( )

(c) Davis and Moore ( ) (d) Goode and Hatt ( )

4. Identify an example of gender stratification.

(a) In India, there is a preference for male over female children, leading to skewed sex ratios and unwanted girls. ( )

(b) The male sex is overrepresented in politics which influences law-making. ( )

(c) Full-time working mothers, in a household with full-time working father, are more likely to be responsible for household labour after work. ( )

(d) All of the above ( )

5. Between castes the only permitted form of social mobility within the lifetime of an individual is by

(a) hypogamy ( ) (b) hypergamy ( )

(c) monogamy ( ) (d) polyandry ( )

6. Who defined classes in terms of their relationship to the instruments of production and the distribution of wealth?

(a) Marx ( ) (b) Davis ( )

(c) Weber ( ) (d) Durkheim ( )

7. A society characterized by the absence of barriers to social mobility is called

(a) ideal society ( ) (b) dynamic society ( )

(c) closed society ( ) (d) open society ( )

8. A change in position that does not alter a person's status is

(a) social immobility ( ) (b) horizontal mobility ( )

(c) vertical mobility ( ) (d) structural mobility ( )

9. Muslims in India are sharply divided into two categories. They are

(a) Sayyads and Shaikhs ( )

(b) Nadar and Paraya ( )

(c) Ashrafs and non-Ashrafs ( )

(d) Paraye and Syrians ( )

10. The most important basis of stratification among the tribes of Middle India is

(a) education ( )

(b) occupation ( )

(c) wealth ( )

(d) ethnicity and class ( )

(SECTION : B—SHORT ANSWER)

(Marks : 15)

Give short answer to the following : 3×5=15

UNIT—I

1. Explain any three functions of social stratification.

OR

2. What is social hierarchy? Explain.

UNIT—II

3. Discuss in brief the functional approach to the study of social stratification.

OR

4. Write a short note on gender approaches to the theory of social stratification.

UNIT—III

5. Give a short account of slavery as a type of social stratification.

OR

6. Explain any three features of class system.

UNIT—IV

7. Mention any three consequences of social mobility.

OR

8. Define social mobility with suitable examples.

UNIT—V

9. Who are the Scheduled Tribes? Give examples of three tribal groups.

OR

10. Explain in short stratification among Muslim community in India.

(SECTION : C—DESCRIPTIVE)

(Marks : 50)

Answer the following : 10×5=50

UNIT—I

1. Describe in detail the characteristics of social stratification.

OR

2. Examine the various determinants of social stratification.

UNIT—II

3. Give an account of Karl Marx's theory of social stratification.

OR

4. Discuss in detail the Weberian approach to the study of social stratification.

UNIT—III

5. Define caste. Examine the main characteristics of caste system.

OR

6. Enumerate the nature of the estate system as a type of social stratification.

UNIT—IV

7. Discuss the various natures of social mobility.

OR

8. Explain the barriers to social mobility.

UNIT—V

9. Enumerate the pattern of stratification among the Scheduled Castes.

OR

10. Discuss the nature of stratification among the Christians.

★ ★ ★